

Lunch and Learn about SEMCOG' s New Forecast

SEMCOG' s 2035 Regional Development Forecast (RDF) provides numbers of population, households, and jobs at five-year intervals to 2035 for the Southeast Michigan region, for communities, and for 1,442 traffic analysis zones. The 2035 RDF' s portrayal of the future provides the basis for SEMCOG' s Regional Transportation Plan as well as for community plans and other infrastructure planning. Xuan Liu, SEMCOG' s Data Center manager, will describe how the new forecast was developed and what it shows for the region' s next 30 years, including: the aging population, continued outward growth, shifts in income distribution, and major redevelopment activity.
